REASONS FOR SENTENCING DELIVERED FROM THE BENCH

[1] FOISY J. (Oral): Mr. Leef, I am taking into account: one, that it was a mistake and unintentional; two, that you are no longer in the business; three, that you are now employed in a position where any kind of a record would, as you put it, add some stigma to your situation.

[2] I do not want it to be thought that I am giving away discharges like candy to the kids at Christmas, because I am not, but given your peculiar situation, I am going to order that you be discharged absolutely.

[3] The company will pay a $500 fine. So that the company may be apprised of this decision, I am going to give the company 30 days to pay the fine. Perhaps, Mr. Brown, you would be good enough to advise the corporation?

[4] MR. BROWN: Yes, sir.

[5] THE COURT: That is everything then?

[6] MR. BROWN: That's everything.

[7] THE COURT: Thank you.
